Winona’s CB2600 is capable of handling just about any boring project that comes in, especially in one- and two-man shop situations. It has a boring range of 2.2”-4.6” as well as an air float head and clamping system.

Winona’s VB-120 has an infinitely variable spindle rotation, spindle downfeed, and table traverse for versatility. Simple controls allow the operator to independently adjust the cutter speeds and feeds.